AT REAL ESTATE SUMMIT, SPEAKERS LOOK FOR SILVER LININGS

Despite the stalling of the real estate market, the invited speakers to SDAR's Real Estate Summit attempted to point out the good with the bad.

The summit was held August 24 at the Town and Country Resort. Hundreds of SDAR members and guests came together to get an update on the state of the regional economy and a forecast for the future. They also took the opportunity to network with their colleagues and with real estate affiliates while enjoying a continental breakfast.

Guest speakers were Norm Miller, Director of Real Estate Academic Programs for USD's Burnham-Moores Center for Real Estate; and Cynthia Kroll, Senior Regional Economist at the Fisher Center for Real Estate and Urban Economics, UC Berkeley.
