Greater San Diego Association of REALTORS® proud to sponsor Taxpayers Association mayoral debate

Find out how candidates plan to move San Diego forward

SAN DIEGO (October 29, 2013) --- The special election to choose a new San Diego mayor is less than a month away, and you can prepare to make an informed decision by attending the "San Diego County Taxpayers Association Special Election Mayoral Debate" on Wednesday.

The participation of all four mayoral candidate has been confirmed for this important event. Veteran local TV news anchor Kimberly Hunt of 10News will moderate as Mike Aguirre, David Alvarez, Kevin Faulconer, and Nathan Fletcher debate the issues facing San Diego. This debate will focus particularly on issues important to taxpayers and on the candidates' views for how best to move San Diego forward.

The Greater San Diego Association of REALTORS® is proud to be a title sponsor of the debate, hosted by the San Diego County Taxpayers Association in partnership with 10News. Although SDAR is not endorsing a candidate in this election, the association and its members are a vital and active part of the community, with a responsibility to be well-informed on important government issues such as the selection of a new mayor in the Nov. 19 election.

Additional sponsors of the debate include fellow Title Sponsor, Bridgepoint Education; Watchdog Sponsors, Evans Hotels and NAOIP; and Presenting Sponsors, Procopio, and Voice of San Diego.

We encourage you to join us Wednesday for this significant, can't-miss debate.
