Commercial Alliance Hosts Economic Summit on March 29

(San Diego, Calif. – March 27, 2012) – The Commercial Real Estate Alliance of San Diego (CRASD), a division of the San Diego Association of REALTORS®, is hosting its Dealmaker Awards and Economic Summit on Thursday, March 29. The networking event takes place from 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. at the Handlery Hotel and Resort in Mission Valley.

The agenda includes a continental breakfast, and a keynote message from George Chamberlin, Executive Editor of The Daily Transcript, who will offer an informative and insightful discussion about commercial real estate issues impacting Southern California.

In addition, the Dealmaker of the Year Awards, as well as The Daily Transcript's Editor's Choice Award will be presented.

The cost to attend is $29 for CRASD members and $39 for non-members. Visit CRASD.com for more details. Preregistration is required.

The Commercial Real Estate Alliance of San Diego is the local industry advocate and information source in commercial real estate. Year-round members of CRASD can take advantage of discounted pricing on all SDAR and CRASD events, networking opportunities, education courses, and webinars. Members also have access to Commercial Property Exchange Group meetings, political and legislative representation for commercial real estate issues, free PC repairs and more.
